

The 2024 Trump platform was removed from donaldjtrump.com. SEALED Press preserved every word — and graded all 145 of his 2016 promises.

WASHINGTON — May 17, 2026 —

In January 2025, donaldjtrump.com removed its policy platform from the live site. The 17 issue pages, the Agenda47 program, and the full RNC 2024 platform vanished — the URLs now redirect to a donate-only shell. Before they went dark, the Internet Archive captured them. SEALED Press preserved every word: 52 specific commitments with their original Wayback URLs, dated capture timestamps, and issue category.

Beyond preservation, the book — SEALED: The 2016 Promises, Before the Deals — grades all 145 of Trump's 2016 campaign promises against the 2017–2021 first term. Each verdict — KEPT, PARTIAL, BROKEN, or READER-DECIDES — sits next to the verbatim promise, the date it was made, and a paper trail in primary sources. 81 of 145 promises link directly to a primary-source URL; the remaining 64 cite two contemporaneous independent reports. The AIPAC chapter documents three commitments graded BROKEN against three donor-traceable receipts.

Of 145 promises: 46 KEPT · 51 PARTIAL · 40 BROKEN · 8 READER-DECIDES. Of the 52 preserved 2024 commitments, 7 are already KEPT via Day-1 executive orders, 20 are IN PROGRESS, 25 are PENDING. The book invites readers to grade the second term in real time at CampaignReceipts.com/trump. SEALED is available as a $15 PDF + ePub at sealed2016.com and as a $25 paperback drop-shipped from Lulu.

“Memory loses. Receipts don’t. SEALED is what happens when you grade nine years of promises against the actual paper trail — and watch how easily a person voted in as an outsider becomes the insider.”
